1) God is Always Justified in What He Does Because He is Who He is:

Nahum 1:2-8 KJV “God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. (3) The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. (4) He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth. (5) The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein. (6) Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. (7) The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. (8) But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.”

2) The seven Jehovah names depicted here embody the “Seven-fold Nature of God: a God of love, power, wisdom, righteousness, mercy, justice and judgement.

1. Jehovah is Jealous – Jehovah nāṭar
2. Jehovah Revenges (takes vengeance on His adversaries) – Jehovah nāqam
3. Jehovah is furious (very hot when angry) -Jehovah ḥēmāh
4. Jehovah is slow to anger – Jehovah ’ārēk-af (of long patience)
5. Jehovah is great in power – Jehovah gādōl-kōah
6. Jehovah Has His Way – Jehovah derek
7. Jehovah is Good – Jehovah ṭōbāh

3) History Synopsis of the Book of Nahum: (Complete Biblical Library)

The Assyrians took over Nineveh and displaced God's people to the “habor” region. Nineveh's demise as “oppressor” would spell deliverance for Israel who could return and be independent and wealthy from the spoils.

4) Vengeance to Comfort – God Declares War on the Rich Sea Trade & Wealth of Nations

1. What Happened on 9-11-2001? Business of the World Trade Center Before 9/11

Viewed as a symbol of global capital and commerce, the World Trade Center was a hub for finance and brokerage companies. The primary business of the original World Trade Center was office space for financial, insurance, and government operations, making it one of the largest concentrations of international finance and trading in the world ^{9/11} National September 11 Memorial & Museum.

Core Function - The Twin Towers and surrounding buildings were rentable office space for more than 430 companies from 28 countries ^{9/11} National September 11 Memorial & Museum. The complex was owned and operated by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, which also housed its own headquarters in the North Tower ^{9/11} National September 11 Memorial & Museum. This made the WTC a major hub for banking, finance, insurance, law, trade, and government services ^{9/11} National September 11 Memorial & Museum.

Tenant Mix - Finance & Insurance: Major tenants included Bank of America, Lehman Brothers, Marsh & McLennan Companies, Aon Corporation, Fuji Bank, and the New York Stock Exchange ^S scienceinsights.org+1.

- Government Agencies: The Port Authority, U.S. Customs Service, and other federal offices were located there ^W Wikipedia.
- Other Industries: Law firms, manufacturing, and international trade offices also occupied space ^{9/11} National September 11 Memorial & Museum.

Supporting Facilities

In addition to offices, the complex included:

- Retail and dining: The underground Mall at the World Trade Center, Windows on the World restaurant, and the Top of the World observation deck ^S scienceinsights.org.
- Transit hub: A PATH commuter rail station and major bus connections ^S scienceinsights.org.

Summary

While the WTC had retail, dining, and transit features, its primary business was providing premium International office space for the global financial and insurance industries, along with government offices.

2. The Rebuilding of Freedom Tower Near Ground Zero after 9-11-2001

Quick Facts about the Current “One World Trade Center”

Built originally as the Freedom Tower, One World Trade Center is the main building of the rebuilt World Trade Center complex in New York City. The tower rises to a symbolic height of 1,776 feet (541 meters), referencing the year of American independence, making it the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere.

The tower primarily houses office spaces (floors 20 to 90), with major tenants including Condé Nast, an American mass media company founded in 1909 by Condé Montrose Nast and owned by Advance Publications.^[1] Its headquarters are located at One World Trade Center, (floors 20 to 44), U.S. General Services Administration (floors 50 to 55), MDC Partners (floors 64 to 69), and various U.S. tech and media firms. Near its top, One World Observatory spans floors 100 to 102, offering 360-degree views of New York City and beyond. The base of the tower (floors 1 to 19) is windowless and heavily reinforced, reflecting its role as both a functional skyscraper and a symbol of renewal after the 9/11 attacks.

Although One World Trade Center was built as part of the effort to memorialize World Trade Center, it was not constructed on the same ground where the Twin Towers once stood, but on a nearby site northwest of it, leaving the original footprints preserved for memorials. The former North and South Tower footprints are now occupied by the North Pool and South Pool, two nearly one-acre reflecting pools that form the centerpiece of the 9/11 Memorial. Each pool features a waterfall descending 30 feet along its four sides before the water disappears into a smaller square void at the center, creating a powerful representation of the absence left by the destroyed towers.

Understanding the Seven-Fold Nature of God

© Copyright 2026 – Dr. Don G. Pickney

A. God's Nature (Who He Is) Determines all that He Does

Exodus 3:14-15 KJV “And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. (15) And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD [Jehovah], God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this [Jehovah that I AM] is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.”

Deuteronomy 32:3-4 NIV “I will proclaim the name of the LORD [Jehovah that I AM]. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! [Heb.(Complete WordStudy Dictionary): “through His mighty acts (Deu 3:24) and power (Psa 79:11) [(4) He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

1. God of Love

1John 4:8-10 MSG “The person who refuses to love doesn't know the first thing about God, because God is love—so you can't know him if you don't love. (9) This is how God showed his love for us: God sent his only Son into the world so we might live through him. (10) This is the kind of love we are talking about—not that we once upon a time loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to clear away our sins and the damage they've done to our relationship with God.”

2. God of Power

Deuteronomy 3:24 AMPC “O Lord God, You have only begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth that can do according to Your works and according to Your might?”

Psalms 150:2 AMP “Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to the abundance of His greatness!”

3. God of Wisdom

Proverbs 3:19-23 AMP “The Lord by skillful and godly Wisdom has founded the earth; by understanding He has established the heavens. [Col_1:16] (20) By His knowledge the deeps were broken up, and the skies distill the dew. (21) My son, let them not escape from your sight, but keep sound and godly Wisdom and discretion, (22) And they will be life to your inner self, and a gracious ornament to your neck (your outer self). (23) Then you will walk in your way securely and in confident trust, and you shall not dash your foot or stumble.

Proverbs 8:22-30 AMPC “he Lord formed and brought me [Wisdom] forth at the beginning of His way, before His acts of old. (23) I [Wisdom] was inaugurated and ordained from everlasting, from the beginning, before ever the earth existed. (24) When there were no deeps, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains laden with water. (25) Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth, (26) While as yet He had not made the land or the fields or the first of the dust of the earth. (27) When He prepared the heavens, I [Wisdom] was there; when He drew a circle upon the face of the deep and stretched out the firmament over it, (28) When He made firm the skies above, when He established the fountains of the deep, (29) When He gave to the sea its limit and His decree that the waters should not transgress [across the boundaries set by] His command, when He appointed the foundations of the earth- (30) Then I [Wisdom] was beside Him as a master and director of the work; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing before Him always.”

4. God of Righteousness

Psalms 9:8 “And He shall judge the world in righteousness; He shall judge the peoples in uprightness.”

Righteousness is defined with several characteristics. Each of them identify an important aspect of this part of God’s nature. Definition includes: always behaving according to a set moral code; truth and correctness; virtuous; decent; and honest. With certainty, you may be sure that God is dealing in your situation with righteousness.

5. God of Mercy

Psalms 86:15 “But You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in mercy and loving-kindness and truth.”

God never fails to extend mercy to us in every situation. There are levels of mercy extended, and God uses our personal standard of mercy towards others as part of His decision in how much mercy to grant to us.

James 2:12-13 AMP “So speak and so act as [people should] who are to be judged under the law of liberty [the moral instruction given by Christ, especially about love]. (13) For to him who has shown no mercy the judgment [will be] merciless, but mercy [full of glad confidence] exults and rejoices victoriously over judgment.”

The “law of liberty” is often expressed throughout Jesus’ and the Apostle’s teachings:

1Peter 3:8-9 KJV “Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: (9) Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.”

Matthew 5:7 AMP “Blessed (happy, to be envied, and spiritually prosperous-- with life-joy and satisfaction in God’s favor and salvation, regardless of their outward conditions) are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy!”

Mark 4:24-25 AMPC “And He said to them, Be careful what you are hearing. The measure [of thought and study] you give [to the truth you hear] will be the measure [of virtue and knowledge] that comes back to you--and more [besides] will be given to you who hear. (25) For to him who has will more be given; and from him who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away [by force].”

6&7 God of Justice and Judgement

Psalms 89:14 “Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.”

Deuteronomy 32:3-4 “Because I will publish the name of the LORD: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. (4) He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment [end in judgment]: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.”

When we accept Jesus, we receive the “Mercy” afforded Adam (humankind) through God’s provision, and thus escape the eternal sentence of “Justice & Judgment,” which came through Adam’s sin. With Adam’s sin, death passed upon all. God’s wrath (“Judgment”) required an eternal penalty (Death & Hell). But God, Himself, sent His only begotten Son, (a “Love” gift) to deliver us from His wrath of “Judgment.” (John 3:36)

1Thessalonians 1:10 “And we look forward to...the coming of His Son from heaven, Whom He raised from the dead--Jesus, Who personally rescues and delivers us...from the wrath... which is coming [upon the impenitent] and draws us to Himself...”

B. As God’s divine nature engages His “Love, Power, Wisdom and Righteousness,” it releases the fruit of His “Mercy,” which triumphs over His sentence of “Judgment.” Thus, in Christ we escape God’s wrath! Praise God, (James 2:13) “...mercy rejoices over judgment.”

C. Finally: It is Vital that We, as Believers, Know Who God is as the Great Jehovah I AM –

Psalms 89:14-16 MESSAGE Bible “Right and Justice are the roots of your rule; Love and Truth are its fruits. (15) Blessed are the people who know the passwords of praise... (16) Delighted, they dance all day long; they know who you are, what you do-- they can't keep it quiet!”
